

2018

LATIN AMERICAN HUNTINGTON'S DISEASE CONFERENCE

MEDICAL, SCIENTIFIC, AND SOCIAL ADVANCES

JULY 7TH–8TH, 2018 BARRANQUILLA, COLOMBIA HILTON GARDEN INN

JOIN AN INTERNATIONAL TEAM OF PROFESSIONALS AND PATIENT ASSOCIATIONS WORKING TOWARDS AN INTEGRATIVE AND PATIENT-CENTERED APPROACH TO ADVANCING THERAPIES AND CARE FOR HUNTINGTON'S DISEASE PATIENTS WORLDWIDE.

The conference will cover the latest scientific and medical advances relevant to Huntington's Disease. Panels by national and international experts will focus on how to improve the quality of life of families affected by HD, particularly those from the most vulnerable communities in Latin America.

The conference will provide useful information and resources to: Scientists, Physicians, Physical and Occupational therapists, Social workers, healthcare personnel and HD families

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

Ignacio Muñoz-Sanjuán, PhD
CHDI Foundation, Factor-H, Los Angeles, USA

Elena Cattaneo, PhD
University of Milan, Italy

Hilal Lashuel, PhD
EPFL, Lausanne, Switzerland

Jimmy Crump, MD
Barranquilla, Colombia

Gustavo Barrios, MD, MSc
Bogotá, Colombia

Roger Cachepe, MD, MSc
CHDI Foundation, Factor-H, Los Angeles, USA

